0 of 0 review helpful Great book for early teens By Danielle N Karthaus I read this and the next four books in the Elizabeth Gail series between the ages of 12 15 I didn't love the books when I was younger but I was interested One thing that makes this series unique is our main heroine Elizabeth Libby She is such a fresh character to me and her story preaches God's grace beautifully Libby isn't a do good p Elizabeth Gail Dobbs is a welfare kid She's the stereotypical foster child determined never to love anybody again But her resolve weakens as the Johnson family responds to Libby's anger with genuine Christian love Ultimately Libby is adopted into the family of God But clouds of mystery sweep over the Johnson farm as old secrets and new relationships mix A great story with a great message for preteen girls
