Fisher of Men:

2 of 2 review helpful TEN Stars ONE HUNDRED Stars By Amy I can't say enough good things about Fisher of Men by Terry Cross. A most unique book in that I actually FELT what the two main characters were feeling all the way through the book. Written by a man I figured men would be his target audience NOT SO. It's totally for EVERYONE. Men, women, teens of either gender and even some younger, more sophisticated. When people and even great white sharks suddenly become prey off Southern California marine biologists Storm Hancock and Terry Ho battle through ruthless politicians, dangerous waters, and their personal quests for truth to track down a mysterious killer before it strikes again. About the Author: Whether fishing, spear fishing, free diving, scuba diving, body surfing, or board surfing, Terry Cross has been on or in the water most of his life. He worked two seasons on the Cat as a commercial abalone diver and helped put himself through nu
