6 of 6 review helpful Fell in love with the reluctant hero By Sal This is my first Mike Duran novel I read this a couple of weeks ago I loved it Zeph was a wonderful character I was sympathetic to him from the start He was wounded but not whiny and vulnerable and brave and strong though he saw himself as powerless and broken I loved his disfigurement I loved his book shop I loved that he wa A prophet never loses his calling only his way Disfigured with a hideous scar from his stepmother Zeph Walker lives his life in seclusion cloistering himself in a ramshackle bookstore on the outskirts of town But Zeph is also blessed with a gift an uncanny ability to foresee the future to know peoples rsquo deepest sins and secrets He calls it the Telling but he has abandoned this gift to a life of solitude unbelief and despair un About the Author MIKE DURAN is a novelist blogger and freelance writer whose short stories essays and commentary have appeared in Relief Journal Relevant Online Breakpoint Rue Morgue magazine and other print
