As Many Hands As God is the fourth short story collection by critically acclaimed literary fiction author Brian Ames. The book's 19 stories survey wide ranging landscapes — both tangible and psychological — in posing the questions: If there is a creator and if that creator intervenes in human affairs, how does that intervention come about? The author's geographies include the bright bleached deserts of the West's Great Basin. About the Author: Brian Ames also is the author of the novel Salt Lick and three other short fiction collections. Comparing his work with such diverse authors as Raymond Carver, Chuck Palahniuk, and Jack London have offered consistent praise, especially for
